

James Keeley earned a Bachelor of Arts and Sciences (BAAS) in 1997 in Dallas, Texas and graduated with Cum Laude honors. As an undergraduate student, he held the offices of Secretary and then President for Phi Theta Kappa, an International Honors Society of the Two Year College. As a senior, he was inducted into Alpha Chi where he was elected Vice President. During his years as an undergraduate student, he was very active in the community and led several community service projects.

James went on to earn a Masters of Education in Administration in 1999 prior to earning a Masters of Business Administration in Management from Colorado Tech in 2001. During his tenure as an MBA student, he co-founded and led a local business institute under the direct supervision of the Colorado Tech Business Chairperson. This institute acted as a resource and information center for small business and local entrepreneurs.

After completing his MBA, he went on to live in California where he earned a Doctor of Philosophy Degree (PhD) in 2006 from TUI with a major in Education and Educational Leadership. As a PhD student, he served as a Graduate Assistant and finally as a Core Faculty member teaching experienced educators in their respective graduate programs. James is extremely happy to be in Ecuador and desires to grow with UEES as it continues to offer high quality degree programs to graduate and undergraduate students.
